【教科書等】

None. The course uses authentic materials in English from various sources: newspapers, magazines, textbooks, internet, academic books, etc. Most of the materials will be prepared by the professor, but student. This course is not a lecture-oriented course but a student-centered course. You will be involved in various kinds of group as well as individual work and projects. Cooperative learning is a crucial concept and principle for students to follow. Students will also need to contribute to class reading materials and work at home on various kinds of research and preparation in the forms of homework.

【授業内容とその進め方】

The course contains several foci of content: understanding scientific language, reading skills for scientific English, research projects, and the presentation of the research projects. Students will be supported to complete the whole process of the projects, especially in research methodology, group works and presentation.

【授業時間外の学習（予習・復習等）】

The course requires students to work outside of class mainly for conducting research and preparing presentations.

【成績評価方法及び評価基準(最低達成基準を含む)】

This course adopts an accumulative grading system which divides the final grades into percentages. It is important to note that there will NOT be a final test that counts for 100% of your grade.
授業中の個々の課題の評価点・宿題、授業態度と出席率。注意点：Those students who are absent for two times or more without any official excuses will not be eligible for Grade “ S ” ; Those students who miss over 30% of total classes without any official excuses will fail automatically. Students who miss 2 or more classes without excuses will not be able to get "S" grade.
Attendance and class performance: 30% ; Reading and tests: 20%; Presentations: 50%

【オフィスアワー：授業相談】

Office Hours: Period 2, Tuesday. オフィスワー以外の相談に応じるが、電子メールや電話などで事前にアポイントを取ること。質問等は電子メールでも受け付ける

【学生へのメッセージ】

Your attendance and your participation in class activities are two of the most important elements of the course and your achievement. You must try to use English in class all the time. Inappropriate use of Japanese in class will be considered unacceptable behaviors in class and will lead to lower final grade. You are encouraged to ask questions actively in class. In addition, you are expected to make contributions to the class materials and group collaboration for research and group work.
