【授業内容とその進め方】

This course is not a lecture-oriented course but a student-centered course. You will be involved in various kinds of group as well as individual work and projects. Cooperative learning is a crucial concept and principle for students to follow. Students will also need to contribute to class reading materials and work at home on various kinds of research and preparation in the forms of homework.

This course is an English-only course but allows occasional meaningful use of Japanese in class. Japanese support in class and outside of class by the professor is available upon request.

【成績評価方法及び評価基準(最低達成基準を含む)】

This course adopts an accumulative grading system which divides the final grades into percentages. It is important to note that there will NOT be a final test that counts for 100% of your grade.

授業中の個々の課題の評価点・宿題、授業態度と出席率。注意点：Those students who are absent for two times or more without any official excuses will not be eligible for Grade " S " ; Those students who miss over 30% of total classes without any official excuses will fail automatically. Students who miss 2 or more classes without excuses will not be able to get "S" grade.

Attendance and performance: 40%

Reading seminars, presentation & homework: 20%

Small Tests: 20%

Writing assignments: 20%

【オフィスアワー：授業相談】

適宜相談に応じるが、電子メールや電話などで事前にアポイントを取ることを。質問等は電子メールでも受け付ける。

【学生へのメッセージ】

Your attendance and your participation in class activities are two of the most important elements of the course and your achievement.

You must try to use English in class all the time. Inappropriate use of Japanese in class will be considered unacceptable behaviors in class and will lead to lower final grade.

【その他】

You are encouraged to speak in English and ask questions actively in class. In addition, you are expected to make contributions to the class materials and group collaboration for research and group work.

This class has a class BBS. Students are required to check the class BBS before every class for class reviews and assignments as well as posting their own homework and communicating with their classmates, TAs and the professor.
